DÔL-HAIDD ISAF

General Information

Dôl-Haidd Isaf cottages are self-contained. Each has a front door onto the courtyard and a back door onto a small patio area leading to the lawn.

Wren's Nest Cottage is for two occupants in one twin bedroom,

Dairy Cottage sleeps three occupants in twin and single bedrooms whilst

Kingfisher Cottage sleeps four occupants in two twin bedrooms.

Holly Cottage also sleeps four occupants in two twin bedrooms.

Dairy Cottage is two-storey with a steep open staircase; the remainder are single-storey.

Each cottage is equipped with electric cooker, microwave oven, refrigerator, crockery, cutlery, television and DVD player. Heating is by storage and convector heaters.

All beds are single divans with duvet quilts and blankets, bed-linen is provided. Please supply your own towels. Each cottage has a living room with a kitchen area. Bathrooms are fitted with showers. We pride ourselves on having clean cottages.

There is a large drying/rod/freezer room with a washing machine and tumble dryer for your use.

Fishing at Dôl-Haidd Isaf

Excepting Wrens Nest where one rod is available, up to two rods in the remaining cottages can be reserved if they are requested when booking. Please note that the number of rods is the same as the number of people fishing; it is illegal to use more than one rod at a time.

Rod Licences

The Environment Agency requires all anglers to buy a rod licence. These are not included in the price of the permit to fish at Dôl-Haidd Isaf. Licences can be purchased at any Post Office in England or Wales, or on line at www.environment-agency.gov.uk/rodlicence
